

Rob Keitch

Background and career history

Rob came to pest control through an environmental management role, having successfully completed the Institute of Environmental Management (IEMA) Advanced Auditor training in 2007.

In December 2010, Rob completed the RSPH Level 2 Award in Pest Management and started his own pest control business. After several years of successful trading, Rob recognised the need to extend his knowledge and experience, and joined Rentokil in March 2013. Having completed the BPCA Accredited Technician qualification in November 2013 he was promoted to Field Biologist in July 2014, achieving Certified Field Biologist status in November 2016.

Rob has extensive experience of pest management in food manufacturing, pharmaceutical and large-scale distribution operations. Additionally, Rob has extensive experience of pest management in retail operations, having been involved with most of the UK multiple retailers.

Rob joined Acheta in February 2017.
